

Canadian
Race Relations
Foundation

Fondation canadienne des relations raciales

Consent Form

You are required accept the following terms to access the portal and apply for funding:

The Canadian Race Relations Foundation (CRRF) is subject to the Privacy Act. The limited personal information provided in your proposal or application, and during the administration of the funding program and related activities, will be protected and handled by the CRRF in accordance with this Act. Personal Information is collected under the authority of section 4 of the Canadian Race Relations Act.

The CRRF may use and/or disclose and/or share your application information for the purpose of determining eligibility for and administering, the National Anti-Racism Fund Program and all related activities, such as assessment, decision making, and reporting to internal and external stakeholders, including the Department of Canadian Heritage and other Crown Corporations, or Foundations. Your information may be disclosed to other government entities to be considered for other funding opportunities. Your information may also be used to contact you for voluntary participation in CRRF outreach activities, which may include surveys and promotional activities in relation to the success and outcomes of the funding program and/or the CRRF. Information you provide may also be used for research, statistical, audit, and evaluation purposes, and as otherwise required and/or permitted by law. The CRRF's privacy practices are further described in Personal Information Bank #PPU 004, "Funding Opportunities".

Under the Privacy Act, individuals have the right to request access to, and correction of, any personal information they provide to the CRRF. The CRRF is also subject to the Access to Information Act (ATIA). Information you provide may become subject to a request under the ATIA and disclosed, as permissible, in keeping with the requirements of this legislation.

The CRRF uses SurveyMonkey Apply, a third-party solution, for grant application, review and monitoring processes related to the National Anti-Racism Fund. Information provided may therefore be processed in and transferred or disclosed in the United States and other countries. For more information, please refer to SurveyMonkey's privacy notice.

For any questions or concerns about your privacy, or to exercise your individual privacy rights, please contact the CRRF's Access to Information and Privacy Coordinator: ATavassoli@crrf-fcrr.ca or 416-441-1900.

Events and Youth Initiatives Application 2023/2024

Section 1: Applicant information

1. Organization Legal Name

2. Organization Information

Street address
City / Town / Community

Province / Territory
Postal code
Phone number
Alternate phone number (if applicable)

3. Preferred language of communication

4. Applicant Information

First name
Last name
Occupation / Job title
Telephone number
Email address

5. Organization status

Canadian registered charity

6. Please describe the mission and main activities of your organization.

max. 200 words

7. Do you have a digital platform? Please list your organization's social media accounts here:

Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, Website, other.

8. Has your organization previously received funding from CRRF?

9. Does your organization receive any funding from the federal government or other crown corporations?

10. Are you applying in collaboration with other community partners to deliver this event or youth initiative?

Please specify who the partners are.

Section 2: Event or Youth Initiative Information

11. Are you applying for an Event or Youth Initiative?

12. Event or Youth initiative title

13. Total amount requested for the event or youth initiative:

Maximum amount of funding is $10,000.

$

14. If CRRF cannot fund the total amount requested, would you be open to partial funding?

15. What is your expected event or youth initiative start date?

Applications seeking funding for Events or Youth Initiatives that will take place between mid-January and March 2024 must be submitted by 11:59 pm (EST) on November 15, 2023.

Applications seeking funding for Events or Youth Initiatives that will take place between April and July 2024 must be submitted by 11:59 pm (EST) on January 15, 2024.

*Applications with events/initiatives that are happening within 60 days of submission will not be reviewed.

16. Is your event commemorating a specific day/month? Please specify.

17. Does your event or initiative have a focus on addressing one or more of the following?

- Anti-Black Racism
- Anti-Indigenous Racism
- Anti-Asian Racism
- Islamophobia
- Antisemitism
- Other, please specify..

18. Does your event or initiative address racism in any of the following sectors?

- Criminal Justice System
- Education
- Social Services
- Arts and Culture
- Online Hate
- Offline Hate
- Environmental Racism
- Policing
- Employment
- Health
- Intersectionality
- 2SLGBTQI+
- Other, please specify..

19. Please list the other funding opportunities or sponsorships you have currently committed to this event or initiative:

20. In which region(s) is the project primarily taking place?

21. What City/Town/Community/First Nation will the event or initiative be delivered? Specify all locations:

22. In which Province/Territory will the event or initiative primarily take place?

23. Do you have a sponsorship package?

Sponsorship package should include:

- (a) A brief description of the main activities*
- (b) Who the expected participants will be, including the communities they come from and their total number*
- (c) Outcomes anticipated from carrying out the project (ex: new skills, new behaviors, additional knowledge, etc.)*

If yes, please upload here:

Section 3: Proposal Part 1

In preparing your proposal, you must provide information to address each of the following sections under the headings provided. Your answers to these questions will allow CRRF to assess your application. It is your responsibility to provide all required information and documents. If this information is not provided, the CRRF will be unable to proceed with the assessment of your application for funding.

24. Summarize your event or initiative, in a clear and concise manner, including all of the following points:

- (a) A brief description of the main activities
- (b) Who the expected participants will be, including the communities they come from and their total number
- (c) Outcomes anticipated from carrying out the project (ex: new skills, new behaviors, additional knowledge, etc.)

max 300 words

Section 3: Proposal Part 2

25. This funding program is one way that the CRRF is investing in community-based projects in the fight against racism and discrimination in Canada.

In addition, event or youth initiative should be designed to achieve one or more of the following results:

- Increase public awareness of public policy issues related to race relations, anti-racism, or anti-hate nationally, regionally, or in local communities
- Increase public awareness of Canada's cultural diversity
- Increase awareness of factors such as race, culture, ethnicity, or religion that may be hindering full participation of the entire Canadian population in society and the economy

- Increase knowledge and capacity within communities to address racism and discrimination

26. Why is this event needed within your community and how does your proposed event address these needs?

max 300 words

27. Which communities will your event engage with? (ie. In design, implementation, evaluation)

Responses Selected:

- First Nations
- Inuit
- Métis
- Black
- Asian
- Latin American
- Middle Eastern
- Other racialized groups (Please specify)
- Muslim
- Jewish
- Hindu
- Sikh
- Other religious minority groups (Please specify)

28. Do you agree to fulfill the recognition requirements listed on the guidelines?

- Invite a CRRF representative to provide remarks at the event or activity or, if more appropriate deliver an e-message or video about the CRRF and its support for the event or activity.
- General invitation to event for CRRF attendees at least 4 weeks in advance
- Follow CRRF Branding Guide for logo visibility and placement
- Provide the CRRF with a notice of the Event at least four weeks in advance of the event date.
- Notification of Event or Youth Initiative date and Month/Day of Observance (if applicable) at least four weeks in advance.

Section 4: Documents & Uploads

29. Please confirm you have these documents, to upload them below:

Budget template can be found here

Responses Selected:

Itemized budget

Annual Financial Statement

Authorization, Declarations & Permissions

Authorization: Recipient Community Organization

By completing this section, the applicant confirms that the Recipient Community Organization is a qualified one and is supportive of this grant application.

Upon submission, your application will be shared with the CRRF for review.

Consent to receive electronic communications:

You have appropriate signing authority to submit this proposal on behalf of the organization.

Your signature:

Your full legal name

Your role within the organization

Today's date