to count one, guilty or not guilty?

RYAN DICKEY: Yeah.

THE COURT: Pardon me? Guilty or....

RYAN DICKEY: Guilty.

THE COURT: Thank you.

MR. HOULE: So, Your Honour, on the two count information on July the 26th of this year at about eight o'clock in the morning, Charlene Moore was working at Tim Hortons at 939 Wyandotte Street West in Windsor, Ontario. The accused entered the store and purchased an item from Ms. Moore then departed. He returned shortly after and he attempted to purchase another item. The manager of the store informed Ms. Moore that Mr. Dickey was not welcomed in the store, he'd been trespassed in the past. When instructed to leave he became confrontational and aggressive towards Ms. Moore. He then called her a word that I'm not going to say, but it's the N word in full and told her he was a member of the Klu Klux Klan and that he was going to punch her in the face. He then took a sip of the drink that he had, he then spat on Ms. Moore with the contents landing on her face and shirt. He then departed the store and travelled eastbound on foot on Wyandotte West, and when the police were called, located him at about - shortly thereafter and placed him under arrest. Those are the facts that relates to those allegations.

THE COURT: The facts admitted to be true?

MR. KIM: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: There will be a finding of guilt on both counts.

MR. HOULE: On the other information, on May the 25th the accused entered into an adult probation order before Justice Ross, as it related to charges of theft under, assault, failed to comply. One of the conditions was that he was not to be within 100 meters of any place where he knew Bernard Dickey to live, work, go to school, frequent, or any place where he knew him to be. That's his father. On July 16th he entered into another probation order before Your Honour, again, a non-association with his father, Bernard. On July 18th he was ordered again this time by Justice Campbell, with conditions not to attend at 1211 Henry Ford. On July 27th at about 10:16 Bernard Dickey heard a large noise in his front door at 1211 Henry Ford. He looked outside and he observed the accused standing on the front porch, approximately five feet from the first step. The accused had thrown a pop can at the front door. Mr. Dickey seen it and contacted the police. At about 12:40 Mr. Dickey Senior again saw the accused standing on his front porch and knocking. At 12:50 Windsor Police arrived and observed the accused standing along the front fence line of the property and they placed him under arrest at that point. Those are the facts.

THE COURT: Thank you. The facts admitted?

MR. KIM: Those facts are acknowledged, Your Honour.

THE COURT: All right, there will be a finding of guilt.
