

Consent Form / Formulaire de consentement

You are required to accept the following terms to access the portal and apply for funding:

Privacy:

The Canadian Race Relations Foundation (CRRF) is subject to the Privacy Act and is committed to your privacy and the protection of your personal information.

We collect limited personal information in your proposal or application, and during the administration of the funding program and related activities. We will protect and handle any personal information provided in accordance with the Privacy Act. Personal information is collected under the authority of section 4 of the Canadian Race Relations Act.

Use and Sharing of your Information:

We may use and/or disclose and/or share your application information for the purpose of determining eligibility for, and administering, the National Anti-Racism Fund Program and all related activities, such as assessment, decision making, and reporting to internal and external stakeholders, including the Department of Canadian Heritage and other Crown Corporations, or Foundations.

Your information may be disclosed to other government entities to be considered for other funding opportunities. Your information may also be used to contact you for voluntary participation in CRRF outreach activities, which may include surveys and promotional activities in relation to the success and outcomes of the funding program and/or the CRRF. Information you provide may also be used for research, statistical, audit, and evaluation purposes, and as otherwise required by law. The CRRF's privacy practices are further described in Personal Information Bank #PPU 004, "Funding Opportunities".

Public Requests for Information:

Under the Privacy Act, individuals have the right to request access to their own personal information held by the CRRF. Upon request, we will provide an individual with timely access to their personal information, subject to limited exceptions. Upon receipt, individuals may request a correction to their personal information if they believe their information is inaccurate.

The CRRF is also subject to the Access to Information Act. This Act gives anyone present in Canada a broad right of access to information held by the CRRF, subject to limited exceptions.

Information you provide may become subject to a request for information under the Privacy Act and / or the Access to Information Act and may be disclosed to the public in keeping with the requirements of the legislation.

SurveyMonkey Apply:

We use SurveyMonkey Apply, a third-party solution, for grant application, review and monitoring processes related to the National Anti-Racism Fund. Information provided may therefore be processed in and transferred or disclosed in the United States and other countries.
